Wild Rice

Wild rice contains 14.8 per cent protein, 9.3 per cent moisture, 3 per cent sugars, 1.8 per cent ash, 1.1 per cent fiber and small amounts of fat, phosphorus, potassium, magnesium, sulfur, calcium and chlorine, says the American Chemical society. The process of parching the seed, introduced by the Indians to facilitate removal of the hulls, reduces appreciably the content of fat, fiber, protein, total ash, magnesium, potassium and phosphorus. In a special test it was found that the vitamin B₁ content of three samples of wild rice seed averaged 1.07 international units per gram, whereas the average of the same three samples when parched was 1.39.

Use Sink Stoppers

In dry Oklahoma sink stoppers can be part of a police officer's equipment. When Lieut. V. O. Webb and two other officers raided a home a woman emptied a dishpan of liquid into the sink. Webb quickly stoppered the sink, drained and siphoned out a quart of what he says was whisky. He was carrying the stopper in his pocket.

Undaunted Courage

Pat Hogan of Westwood, Calif., and Muriel Dwyer of Santa Cruz, went to Reno, Nev., to be married. Pat, after getting the license, was knocked down by an auto and his leg was fractured. Undaunted, he had the leg set at a hospital, summoned a clergyman and the marriage was performed on schedule at the bedside.

Vary Your Puddings

By Frances Lee Barton

A raisin sponge pudding is easy to make.

It needs no more effort or time than a cake. It's no more expensive than pie or salad. But it's sure a "Hut-Sut" (or dream) anywhere.

Raisin-Sponge Pudding

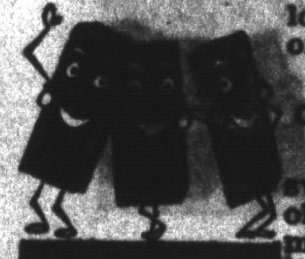

4 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca; 2 tablespoons sugar; ¼ teaspoon salt; 1 cup seedless raisins, finely chopped; 1½ cups milk; 1 tablespoon butter; 2 tablespoons orange juice; 1 teaspoon grated orange rind; 3 egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon-colored; 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten.

Combine tapioca, sugar, salt, raisins, and milk in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook 7 minutes after water boils again, stirring frequently. Add butter, orange juice, and orange rind. Cool slightly while beating eggs. Add egg yolks and mix well. Fold into egg whites. Turn into greased baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 to 60 minutes, or until firm. Serves 2.

Try Chocolate Bars

By Frances Lee Barton

YOU'LL find a fruit filled chocolate bar a very popular addition to your menu — one that may be varied without losing in flavor or appeal.

Fruit Filled Chocolate Bars

4 squares unsweetened chocolate; ½ cup milk; ¼ cup light brown sugar, firmly packed; 3 cups sifted flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ½ teaspoon salt; ¼ cup butter or other shortening; 1 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed; 1 egg, unbeaten; 2 tablespoons milk; 1½ teaspoons vanilla.

Combine chocolate and milk in top of double boiler. Cook over boiling water until blended and thickened, stirring constantly. Add ¼ cup brown sugar and continue cooking 5 minutes. Cool.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cream butter thoroughly, add 1 cup brown sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Stir in chocolate mixture, milk and vanilla. Add flour all at once and mix well. Chill overnight or until firm enough to roll. Divide dough in six equal parts. Roll each portion of dough ¼ inch thick on slightly floured board, into rectangular sheet — 4½ x 12 inches. Use your own favorite filling. Spread ⅓ cup filling in 1¼-inch strip down center of dough. Fold dough over filling, brush edges with milk, and seal. Place seam-side down on ungreased baking sheet and brush with milk. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 20 minutes, or until done. Let cool in pan 5 minutes, then cut diagonally in bars, 1 inch wide. Makes 5½ doz. bars.

"Snow" for Xmas Tree

A "White Christmas" is guaranteed, regardless of outside weather, when you decorate your Christmas tree with natural-looking Lux "snow." Piled high on the branches, it will give your tree an unusual and attractive trimming that will last as long as the tree itself.

For a natural, woodsy look, use the snow alone. Add lights if you wish—multi-colored bulbs cast interesting shadows on the white snow, or, for a lovely moonlit effect, use all blue lights. If you have a collection of treasured ornaments you can use them, too. You'll find you need fewer ornaments when you use Lux snow—and that's a help this year.

Here's how to make the "snow"

Empty a large box of Lux flakes into a mixing bowl or dishpan. Gradually add 2 cups of lukewarm water, beating with an eggbeater until the mixture is the consistency of thick whipped cream. Then spread handfuls of the snow along the branches. It will harden in an hour or two.

If you use ornaments or lights, put them on after the snow has dried. Or you might try sprinkling some shining artificial snow on the tree while the soap mixture is still damp. It will catch the light and give a glittering, fairyland effect.

To carry out the "snowstorm" theme through your whole house, buy a few extra branches of evergreen when you get your tree and coat them with Lux snow, too. These can be fashioned into a wreath or miniature tree for the front door, or can be banked behind a mirror or over the buffet. They'll stay fresh until after New Year's and provide a seasonal background for all your holiday festivities.

Booming Railway Business

Passenger traffic on the Eastern Bengal railway in India has shown a substantial increase since reported healing powers of the four-year-old son of a Saidpur station agent have become known. The boy is said to be able to cure sufferers by breathing on them.

New way to get Gorgeous Flavor
into CREAMED DISHES

—it's quick—it's easy

—and results are certain

says Dorothy Greig

Turkey a la King served in timbale cases is real luncheon party fare

ACCORDING to our notions, a creamed dish should have character, should boast zestful flavor, be fun to eat.

To achieve this would, ordinarily, be a fancy chore. But call on canned condensed soups and see what happens. You get a delicious mingling of flavors—quickly and with no trouble. Incidentally, this double use of a canned product is just one example of how modern packaged soups work for us.

The soups well suited for creamed dishes are cream of mushroom, thick with mushroom slices, and thick with vegetable purées as pea, celery, asparagus and tomato.

For instance, let's make turkey a la King this new way. It's a grand recipe for the last fragments of Mr. Turkey, too!

Turkey a la King
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 cup turkey
1 cup pineapple (cut in strips 1/2 inch wide by 1 inch long)
1 egg yolk
1/2 cup milk

Out the turkey into pieces about 1/2 inch square.

Stir the cream of mushroom until smooth. Then add 1/2 cup of top milk. Heat and add the turkey and strips of pineapple. Then add the egg yolk which has been diluted with some of the hot sauce. Heat, but do not boil. Serve on toast in timbale cases or with hot buttered rice. Serves 3-4.

Here's another. This dish calls for celery soup:

Creamed Shrimps in Celery Sauce
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon flour
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup cream
1 can condensed celery soup
1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce
2 cups cooked shrimps

Cook the flour in the melted butter until frothy. Then add the milk and cream and cook until thickened. Add the remaining ingredients and heat to blend the flavors. Serve on toast or spoon them into popovers. Makes enough for 4-6.

China Elephant

Dr. William W. Christley, Corydon, Ind., dentist, found a tiny china elephant in the debris of the 1937 Ohio river flood. He kept it. Since then, he has collected more than 700 toy elephants, big and little, in every kind of material from ivory to sponge. He keeps them in his office.

Modern Transportation

Motor transportation is rapidly replacing pack animals for hauling in Afghanistan.

Perishable Baking Powder

Baking powder is a somewhat perishable product. If overexposed to the air moisture is absorbed. It should be kept in a tightly closed can and in a cool dry place.

New Spotlight

Having a special line and a pre-focused 500 watt electric bulb, a new spotlight for amateur photographers is asserted to provide as much light as most 500 watt spotlights.

TURKEY MOUSSE
for a HOLIDAY PARTY

by Dorothy Greig

LET this mousse stand proud and handsome on the serving table and it's more than likely to be the hit of your supper party. It has such deep turkey flavor... such delicacy of texture... and looks so gay with its flecks of green and yellow.

Made in a ring mold the center can be filled in with a mixture of fresh and pungent greens—watercress, parsley, chickory, chopped green pepper and such. Or it can be simply garnished around the edge. Or both. Any way it's done this turkey mousse is delicious.

Holiday Mousse

2 cans condensed chicken soup
3 eggs, separated
1 1/2 tablespoons gelatine (softened in 1/4 cup water)
1 1/2 cups cooked turkey
1/2 cup whipping cream
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup cooked carrots, diced
1 cup cooked green peas
1 cup celery, diced

Sprinkle the gelatine on the cold water and let it soften. Strain the chicken soup and heat the consommé in the upper part of the double boiler. Put the turkey and the soup garnish (rice, chicken and celery) through the food chopper, using the small blade. Beat the egg yolks and add the hot consommé to them, then cook 3-4 minutes in the double boiler. Pour this hot mixture over the softened gelatine and stir until the gelatine is dissolved. Cool and when the mixture begins to thicken add the ground turkey and rice, lemon juice, diced cooked carrots, cooked green peas and diced celery. Then fold in the beaten egg whites and whipped cream. Pour into mold and put in the refrigerator until firm. Turn out on a garnish of lettuce, watercress or chickory. Makes 10-12 portions.

SHORT CUTS

CLEANING the burners on top of a gas stove after cooking a meal ceases to be a chore if done with absorbent paper toweling. Just rub several squares of paper toweling over the burner and the top of the stove. You can dispose of the dirty towels in the wastebasket and you will not have any greasy dish towels to rinse.

First Dog Shot

Bobby, an Alsatian dog attached to a crack French Zouave regiment as a messenger, was the first dog to be shot by the Germans on the Western front, according to a report received in Paris. His body was recovered and was buried with the following epitaph: "Here lies Bobby, a messenger dog, who fell on the field of honor while rendering service."

CHRISTMAS COOKIE HOUSE

Makes Holiday Fun Galore

Imagine the "oh's" and "ah's" of admiration when your family and friends see this fascinating Hansel-and-Gretel cookie house on the Christmas table, or in front of your candle-light window! And it's so easy and inexpensive to make.

Just get a pasteboard house at the five-and-ten, place it on a tray, and frost it with swirly, white, seven-minute frosting. Shredded coconut makes the icicles, nuts march around the eaves and up the gravelled walk — and varied-shaped cookies do the rest.

For holly, you can use candied citron and angelica, cherries, and little red candles. If you like, sprinkle some cookies with colored sugar before baking — use colored frosting for others.

All the cookies for this novel Christmas decoration are made from this one easy recipe — sweeten for windows, stars for the roof, reindeer to ride the roof-crest, Santa for the chimney! You see, creamy, satin-white Ispay makes mixing over so quick, ever so thorough. Be sure to fill the inside of the house with cookies or have a full-cookie jar handy, so everyone can help himself. Clip the recipes and keep them handy for grand cookies any time!

Vanilla Cream Frosting

2 tablespoons Ispay
1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon salt

3 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
5 tablespoons scalded cream (about)

COMBINE Ispay, butter, vanilla, and salt, and blend.
Beat in 1/4 cup sugar. Add hot cream, alternately with remaining sugar, beating well after each addition. Add only enough cream to make a nice spreading consistency. Divide and color each portion differently, using pure food colorings.

Christmas House Cookies

1 cup Ispay
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

1/2 cup sugar
3 eggs, well beaten
3/4 cups sifted flour

COMBINE Ispay, salt, and vanilla. Add sugar, then beaten eggs, and beat thoroughly.
Add flour and mix well.
Roll dough 1/4-inch thick on floured board and cut with fancy-shaped cookie cutters as shown in picture. Sprinkle with colored sugar or leave plain.
Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 8 minutes, or until delicately browned.
Frost plain cookies with colored Vanilla Cream Frosting. Press decorated cookies into frosted cookie house while frosting is still soft. The photograph suggests an effective arrangement.

Still Time For Marmalades

By Frances Lee Barton

WHEN most fruits are scarce or off the market and the jelly closet is proving once more that you did not stock enough, get some of your year-round fruits and replenish your stock. Here is one recipe that may be used almost any time, for a marmalade that is always good:

Orange, Grapefruit, and Lemon Marmalade

3 1/2 cups (1 1/2 lbs.) prepared fruit; 5 cups (2 1/2 lbs.) sugar; 1/2 bottle fruit pectin.
To prepare fruit, remove skins in quarters of one orange, one grapefruit and one lemon of medium size. Lay quarters flat; shave off and discard about half of white part. With a very sharp knife, cut remaining rind into fine shreds. Add 1 1/2 cups water and 1/2 teaspoon soda, bring to a boil, and simmer, covered, for just 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cut off tight skin of peeled fruit and slip pulp out of each section. Add pulp and juice and 1 cup sugar to cooked rind. (This 1 cup sugar is in addition to the 5 cups specified above.) Simmer, covered, 20 minutes longer.

Labors of Hercules

The 12 tasks of great difficulty imposed on Hercules by the Argive king were as follows: "To slay the Nemean lion, kill the Lernean hydra, catch and retain the Arcadian stag, destroy the Erymanthian boar, cleanse the stables of King Augeas, destroy the cannibal birds of the Lake Stymphalia, take captive the Cretan bull, catch the horses of the Thracian Diomedes, get possession of the girdle of Hippolyta, queen of the Amazons; take captive the oxen of the monster Geryon, get possession of the apples of the Hesperides, and bring up from the infernal regions the three-headed dog Cerberus."

First Girl

The Bert family is celebrating the birth of the first girl baby in the family for 10 generations. The child is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bert, of Cheshire, Mass.

Measure sugar and prepared fruit solidly packed, into large kettle, flooding each cup with juice, or if necessary, with water. Bring to a boil and boil gently 5 minutes. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Remove from fire and stir in bottled fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for just 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot marmalade at once. Makes about 5 glasses (5 fluid ounces each).

Museum for Youth

Since the modern youth section of the Illinois State museum was opened in Springfield recently, the usual "Hey, Mom, what's that mean?" approach of juvenile museum visitors is going out of use. For the new branch has been designed throughout to promote the imagination and to brighten the intellect of boys and girls by presenting natural history displays in a way comprehensible to them. Simple, uncluttered displays in specially made cases, together with simply worded labels, go a long way in this direction.

Human Head Sacred

In the Fiji Islands, the human head is held to be sacred and it is an insult to reach above the head of another person. Women in consequence crawl on their hands and knees when men are at leisure inside a house. Persons who have been insulted are likely to commit suicide to eradicate the shame.

Soundproof Clubs

Miami Beach night clubs must be both soundproof and air-conditioned, under a city ordinance.

ESCALLOPED OYSTER GUMBO for supper

by Dorothy Greig

THIS is a dish to warm the cockles of your heart. Keep it for a chill evening when cold winds blow. Then set it on the supper table, and with gusto dip the serving spoon down through that browned cracker top to scoop up the succulent oysters in their steaming sauce.

1 pint oysters and liquor
2 cups rolled crackers (unsalted)
1 can condensed chicken gumbo soup
3 tablespoons butter

Sprinkle 1/2 cup of rolled cracker crumbs in the bottom of a casserole. Arrange a layer of oysters over the crumbs, and over the oysters with liquor pour 1/2 can condensed chicken gumbo soup. Cover with 3 cups of rolled cracker crumbs and dot with 3 tablespoons of butter. Then put another layer of oysters (with liquor) in the casserole and over it pour the rest of the chicken gumbo soup. Sprinkle the remaining 1/2 cup rolled cracker crumbs over the top of the oysters, dot with 3 tablespoons butter, and bake for 1 hour at 375°. Serve 4-6.

Guard President

At President Roosevelt's party for Washington newspaper reporters, guests who had wandered to the south lawn had a queer sensation when they tried to get back into the Mansion and found the doors locked. Peering through the windows, they saw that the brightly lighted Red room, the Blue room and the Green room had been suddenly emptied. Before long, a secret service aide came to explain. The rooms had been cleared to allow President Roosevelt to pass through to his private elevator. Just part of closer guarding of the President since the war has become worse.

More Interest in Sports

Is interest in athletic affairs slackening because of the European war? Not if attendance at baseball games is any criterion. At the Yankee stadium this summer, 84,000 paid to see a game, the third largest crowd in baseball history. And in the Pacific Coast league, Seattle, until June 8, 1941, drew 27,000 more admissions than during the corresponding period in 1939, and Seattle led the league in attendance in 1939. It seems that people want to get away for a couple of hours from the war news in Europe and welcome the opportunity of going to the ball game or playing a bit of golf.
